

NEW EP "PLIÉ"

Full Circle Boys' PLIÉ is a movement-centered project showcasing the group's artistry and performance identity, with all members contributing to the songwriting across the EP.

The lead singles "CGI" and "FREE99" have generated hundreds of thousands of streams, with FREE99 surpassing one million. Backed by high-energy choreography and standout visuals, the Boys have built a fast-growing fanbase through music that is made to be seen live.

FULL CIRCLE BOYS

Under the creative direction of Keone Madrid, the Boys have released 7 official music videos, including collaborations with KIDA The Great and Sean Lew, spanning performance, lyric, and live pieces that put movement at the center of their artistry.

The Boys are currently performing on Derek Hough's Ovation tour, bringing their choreography and new music to audiences nationwide.

As PLIÉ continues to roll out, the group is looking ahead to the release of their debut album later this year.
